Winemaking

Carefully selected grapes are fully destemmed and gently pressed using a pneumatic membrane press to preserve the purity of the fruit. The maceration process is tailored to highlight the desired aromatic finesse. Fermentation occurs at low temperatures (15-18°C) to retain the wine's natural freshness and vibrancy - the signature of this luminous rosé.

Ageing

Aged for 3 months in stainless steel tanks, with monthly rackings to promote clarity and aromatic expression.

Tasting Notes

Pale and brilliant in the glass, Bianca Flora delivers a generous nose of juicy pear and ripe mango, lifted by subtle notes of white blossom. The palate is round and enveloping, combining freshness and softness with elegant indulgence. A gastronomic rosé of character and grace.
